NEGOTIATIONS ARE OFF.
Some of them may continue in operation, but it is not likely that they will. Secretary Williams of the Amalgamated Association stated today that all negotiations are off for the present, and that the matter will have to be referred back to the subordinate lodges. Mr. Williams said that the two gentlemen referred them in advance, but no money was then wanted, and as the committee had no authority to do anything except what the convention decided on in Detroit, just a month ago, the conference was brought to an end. It would be impossible, he said, to refer the matter back to the subordinate lodges this week, much less arrange for another conference.

FAREWELL TO GOV. ROOSEVELT BY TWO LENGTHS

Reunion of the Rough Cornell Defeated in the Riders Still in Progress.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.
LAS VEGAS, N. M., June 26.—Governor Roosevelt was given a royal send-off at 12:00 o'clock this morning on his departure for New York. Roosevelt and party were accompanied by their car by prominent citizens of the Southwest, among them being Governor Otero, of New Mexico and Governor Murphy, of Arizona.

The mail train to which the special car was attached was a half hour late. Roosevelt's appearance on the car platform was the signal for enthusiastic cheering by the huge crowd that had assembled. In fact, wherever he appeared during his stay here the enthusiasm was almost unbounded. When the train finally pulled out of the depot on its journey northward and eastward, the hands struck up the strains of "A Hot Time" the crowd cheered and Roosevelt bade farewell to those who had delighted to do him honor.

During his stay here Roosevelt refused to talk for publication on matters of the day such as the application of the federal law for reforestation in the Philippines. He stated that he refused, absolutely, to give a word of an interview to any one.

Although Colonel Roosevelt had departed on his eastward journey, the enthusiasm of his Rough Riders continued unabated.

The Rough Riders and citizens' parade took place at 1 o'clock under the leadership of Major General Allen. It was over a mile in length, with a band of music heading each of the four divisions.

MIND DISORDERED BY ALCOHOLISM.

W. Woodward, a chimney cleaner, aged 31 years, was brought to the Receiving Hospital this morning to be examined as to his sanity.

Woodward has been drinking hard for several weeks and it is thought that his mind has become affected by the alcohol in his system.

He was last seen arrested on a charge of drunkenness. Since his confinement he has been acting in a very strange and erratic manner. He would remain in bed and exhibit signs of great fear. At the same time he would call upon the police to protect him from his captors. His case is supposed to be severe delirium tremens or one of complete insanity.

MORE RIOTS IN CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND, June 26.—Several small riots took place today, due to the presence of non-union crowds on the big consolidated lines. One of the most serious was a riot in a northwestern car, which was attacked with gas through a British settlement. The non-union and union men were struck by stones and the driver, Charles W. Kennedy, drew a revolver, firing over the heads of the crowd, which then gave way in flight. A man who had been in the crowd was shot in the leg. There were several hostile demonstrations against non-union crowds.

Captain Thomas Mein Says Boers Need a Good Thrashing.

Jackson Street Millionaire From South Africa
Interviewed By Annie Harriet
Allen of U. C.

Captain Mein was among the Americans arrested in South Africa and sentenced to imprisonment for life. He was subsequently pardoned.

How many know anything definite about the Transvaal? Hands up! No great showing of hands, I see, and conclude that an interesting story that was new to me will be new to others.

Captain Thomas Mein, millionaire of Lake and Jackson streets, who is in a position to know more about the Transvaal than almost anyone else in this country, when seen the other evening at his home, gave an extremely interesting account of the country, the people, the government and the present situation there.

The country, which is smaller than California and situated in Southern Africa just north of the Cape Colony, was first settled some forty years ago by the Boers who are of Dutch origin, but who are now a dark-skinned, dark-haired race. Its census has never been taken but the greatest number of votes ever cast was in 1892, when the population was estimated at a total of between fifty-five and sixty thousand.

Mein says that the Boers are now the chief occupation of the Boers. The Boer of early days was wholly uneducated. He was born in a wagon and grew up in a wagon. He was a man of few words and his whole ambition was to own a wagon for himself with a team of four oxen and a few sheep. He was a man of few words and his whole ambition was to own a wagon for himself with a team of four oxen and a few sheep.

But of late years there is a tendency among the Boers to educate their children. Many of the young men have been sent to Europe to acquire the best education possible. Among them are many very clever and intelligent men.

JOHANNESBURG. Johannesburg, the chief city, is large and well built and has a modern appearance. It is better built, however, than many of our cities, almost all the buildings being of brick or stone. It is a very dry city and there is very little water in it. It is a very dry city and there is very little water in it. It is a very dry city and there is very little water in it.

It has a population of about sixty thousand, the majority of whom are English and German, and a few are Americans. As for style and society, Johannesburg is a very modern city. It is a very modern city. It is a very modern city. It is a very modern city.

It is a very modern city. It is a very modern city. It is a very modern city. It is a very modern city.

GOLD MINES. The gold mining industry of the country which is the greatest gold district yet discovered. There is one vein now being worked which is over forty miles long. Fifteen miles of it lies through an almost continuous ridge, so numerous are the veins and so numerous are the veins and so numerous are the veins.

These mines are worked in a different way from those in California. Here the miners take out the gold by means of a machine which is called a "crusher." The machine is a work of art and is a work of art. The machine is a work of art and is a work of art.

CAPTAIN MEIN. "There is not much chance for adventurers to make huge fortunes there," said Captain Mein. "It takes too much capital at the beginning. The mine here is a mine here. The mine here is a mine here. The mine here is a mine here."

THE GOVERNMENT. In speaking of the government of the Transvaal, Captain Mein said that it is a republic. It is a republic. It is a republic. It is a republic. It is a republic. It is a republic. It is a republic.

"Krugger is a very clever man but is wholly uneducated. He never reads a newspaper or a book of any kind except his Dutch Bible, which he pores over a great deal. He is a religious fanatic and believes that the Lord is always on his side. He is continually making promises of reforms but these promises never mature. He is one of those men who have been born in a wagon and who have grown up in a wagon."

OUR CROPS

The fruit crop of Alameda county is not a failure.

To be sure the cherry crop is hardly any figure in the market this year, but the other fruits are not much below the average in quantity.

"Furthermore what shortness there is has tended to raise prices."

Socrates Huff, the San Leandro banker, is one of the best informed men in the State on crops and he takes an optimistic view of the situation.

"HE KNOWS."

"As one who is in a position to know," said Mr. Huff to The Tribune, "I desire to state that the prevailing impression that the farmers and fruit growers have suffered an irreparable loss, is wrong."

The cherry crop is a factor in the market, in fact, there will be but one crop which will be sold, nevertheless the other fruits are in a satisfactory condition.

"All in all, I think the year has been fairly good. When the trees are overburdened with fruit, prices are low, consequently the smaller quantity of fruit is sold. Thus matters are equalized."

GOOD CROPS.

"As near as can be ascertained, there will be about three-fourths of a crop of pears, and the same of peaches and plums. The apricot yield will amount to about one-third of a crop."

"Tomatoes are a very promising crop and the cherry crop is also good. The hay crop is also good, while the corn crop is an average. I understand there is some prospect of a good crop of wheat in order to prevent another drought, the yield during the past two years prior to the recent rainfall."

"Well, I do not think the plan necessary. It will be remembered that an ordinary dry season is not much of a terror for the farmer or fruit grower."

"Now if there were any probability of another growth of the duration through which we have passed, irrigation might be necessary."

"I have no objection to irrigation, but I believe in the use of water in moderation. It is a repetition of such a state of affairs."

HOPESFUL.

"In conclusion, I believe the fruit crop is a very fair one. It is a very fair one. It is a very fair one. It is a very fair one."

"I want to say that fruit is a very fair one. It is a very fair one. It is a very fair one. It is a very fair one."
